Note: It is possible that customer-specific application software is required on the delivered inverter, for which there may be customer protection and which we therefore do not have. Please note that we do not accept returns of delivered goods after an order has been placed if non-acceptance by you or your customer after receipt of the goods is due to an error not solely within our control. Note Vacon NXP system software The drive is shipped with current NXP3 system software and installed Vacon "All-In-One" application software. Note: It is possible that customer-specific application software is required on the drive to be supplied, for which there may be customer protection and which we therefore do not have. Please note that we do not accept returns of delivered goods after an order has been placed if non-acceptance by you or your customer after receipt of the goods is due to an error that is not solely our responsibility. We point out that we do not take back delivered goods after the order has been placed, if a non-acceptance by you or your customers after receipt of the goods should be due to a fault which is not exclusively our sole responsibility.
